

SUIT BROUGHT BY BONDHOLDERS.

They Want a Receiver for the Ohio, Indiana & Western Railway Company.

A suit has been filed in the United States Circuit Court by the Central Trust Company, of New York, and Frank K. Sturgis, who sues on behalf of himself and other bondholders, against the Ohio, Indiana & Western Railway Company. The plaintiffs ask that the amount payable upon the bonds issued by the defendant be determined, and that the company be ordered to pay the same. In default of payment the plaintiffs ask to have the road sold under the direction of the court and that the proceeds be applied to the payments of money due plaintiffs. The prayer of the complaint is also for the appointment of a receiver. It is set forth that about April 2, 1888, the defendants issued a series of first mortgage bonds amounting in the aggregate to $8,500,000 of which $500,000 were preferred bonds, and in case of any sale of the property mortgaged the plain tiffs were to have a prior claim on the proceeds of such sale. These bonds were made payable April 1, 1893, with interest from April 1, 1888, at the rate of 5 per cent. The defendants, on the 1888 date named, also issued another series as first mortgage bonds, interest certificates, in each of which the railroad company covenanted that it was indebted to the plaintiffs for the amount of interest upon certain bonds of the Indiana, Bloomington & Western Railroad Company, which had been deposited with the plaintiffs under an agreement made with the stock and bondholders of the Indiana & Western Railway Company, which the Ohio, Indiana & Western Railway Company promised to pay, or before April 1, 1893. Second mortgages were also effected on the road by the company to the extent of $300,000.

A deed of trust was executed and delivered to the plaintiffs by the railway company which conveyed to them as security the line of railway extending from Pekin, Ill., to Springfield, O. The deed also provided that in case of sale by judicial authority, under foreclosure of the first mortgage, the proceeds of any such sale should be distributed as follows: First, to the payment of interest upon the preferred bonds. Second, to the payment of the principal and accrued interest of bonds secured by first mortgage. Third, after the first mortgage bonds should have been paid, the balance of such proceeds should be applied to the payment of the principal and accrued interest of such of the accrued interest certificates secured by the first mortgage. It is also claimed that the surplus, if any, after this was done, was to be paid over to the railway company. This deed of trust was recorded in the States of Illinois, Indiana and Ohio. The complaint also states that the railway company paid the interest upon the $500,000 preferred bonds when the same became due, but did not pay the interest on the non-preferred bonds, which became payable the first days of April, July and October, 1889.

The plaintiffs state that the mortgaged premises are inadequate security for the payment of the money now due upon the bonds; that the amount of principal and outstanding and unpaid bonds secured by first mortgage is $6,500,000, and that the interest thereon has been paid to the 1st of January, 1889; that the principal on unpaid accrued interest certificates secured by first mortgage is $645,000, the interest having been paid to October, 1888; that the amount principal on unpaid bonds secured by second mortgage is $2,000,000, the interest thereon having been paid to the 1st of October, 1888, and that the amount of the principal in second mortgage accrued interest certificates is $245,000, the interest having been paid to Oct. 1, 1888. No other interest on bond certificates has been met.

A TIN SOLDIER ON THE BIG FOUR.

Mr. Harris, in advance of Hoyt's "A Tin Soldier," came in on the Big Four on Thursday, and today Mr. Frank McKee, manager of both Mackinac and A. Tin Soldier, was waiting on the Columbus division, and the boys began to gather for Frank is a hustler from Haverstown. The entertaining qualities of the Plumber, Kate Violet and Fanny, who will be seen at English's next week, are well known in Indianapolis, and Mr. McKee deserves the thanks of our theatergoers for bringing such a laughable production as "A Tin Soldier," to enable us to laugh off the effects of Thanksgiving dinner. The show opens Thanksgiving matinee, plays Friday and Saturday, then takes the Big Four for New York Dec. 1.
